

The South Carolina International Reading Association
Presents

Miriam Trehearne

March 8, 2008

9:00 AM-3:00 PM

Polo Road Elementary School
1250 Polo Road, Columbia SC 29223

Miriam Trehearne has been a classroom teacher, resource teacher, program specialist (exceptional needs students), coach, administrator, Literacy Specialist, Reading Recovery Site-Coordinator, and University Associate. As a Literacy Specialist, she led a very successful research-based initiative in a large urban school district (160 elementary schools) that resulted in closing the literacy gaps in 56 high-needs schools. The results have been documented by the University of Calgary and an independent program evaluator. She presently devotes much of her time to researching literacy best practices; presenting to teachers, literacy coaches and school administrators at conferences; and writing books and journal articles. She has published in several professional journals and recently was senior author of The Comprehensive Literacy Resource for Kindergarten Teachers, The Comprehensive Literacy Resource for Preschool Teachers, and The Comprehensive Literacy Resource for Grade 1-2 Teachers.
